JOB FAIR TIPS:

- Hotel – Request SACC room block
- Airport – About 20 minutes ($35 fare).
- Thursday – Attend the candidate career seminars on Thursday evening – attire is casual and comfortable for those events (jeans, shorts, tee shirts).
- Friday – Stay all day for the job fair on Friday – explore as many career opportunities as possible; attend the breakfast and the lunch – they are hosted by companies in corporate America interested in hiring service academy grads.
- Attire on Friday – Dress for an interview – suit and tie for men; Business suit for women; A good first impression may land you an interview; Uniform of the day is also acceptable.
- Companies Attending – click on this link on SACC website – Research companies you are interested in; visit their career websites; Identify positions that interest you and arrive with the job posting along with extra copies of your resume.
- Clearances – State your Clearance Level – It is okay to state you previously held a clearance.
- Resume – Build your resume to reflect your qualifications and career goals; highlight your skills and experience; Keep resumes to one page – bring extra copies to hand to recruiters at their booth.
- Work the Job Fair – Ask about positions you are qualified for; Collect business cards from each recruiter you speak with – follow up later.
- Etiquette – Treat company recruiters with courtesy; everyone you meet and interact with will have input in the decision to hire or not hire you.
- Demeanor – Smile, be personable and positive, make eye contact, firm hand shake, good posture.

POST JOB FAIR TIPS:

- Before contacting a recruiter after SACC, it is important that you first apply on their company website so that piece of the interview process is completed.
- When following up from SACC, do not expect companies to work around your schedule; Email a copy of your resume to remind the recruiter of your qualifications and that you met at SACC.
- A follow up thank you via e-mail or a hand-written note to the company contacts you met at SACC is always appropriate.
